

EQUINE NORTH HORSE PHOTO CONTEST

EquineNorth.net is having its first annual photo contest. This contest is opened as of Oct 1, 2006 and will run until Oct 31, 2006.

The contest will only be accepting online photos only.

There are two categories:

1. Funniest photo
2. Most beautiful photo

There is a first place winner for each category. The prize is a brand new nylon halter, (blue and a red one) the brass is a bit tarnished but the halters are brand new, never used. Prizes will be shipped free anywhere in Canada.

RULES: Each photo must include the name of the person who took the photo and the person submitting the photo.

This is an amateur photo contest, although professional photographers can still enter the contest.

Make sure your photo is clear and of good quality! (We have the right to refuse any photos that aren't of good quality/viewable or any copyrighted photos, not belonging to the submitter or not having permission to use.)

Photos must also be no smaller than 300 pixels wide. As well, sent in its original format. (Unedited)

To Enter: It's easy: email your photo (no more than one entry per category per person too: anna@nt.net. (Up to 3 photos each max for each category per person)

Be...sure it's in a JPG format, please. Include your name and email address!! Sorry, not accepting mailed in entries, online entries only.

Photos will be posted as I receive them with the person's name that sent the photo and or the person who took the photo. Near the end of the contest, I will put up a form so you, the viewers can vote on who YOU think should win. So you are the judge and jury as well! I will tally all votes at the end to choose the winner from your votes. Please only vote once.

Good luck and look forward to seeing your pictures!
